

One alternative that you may wish to consider is for interest groups such as your own to seek the establishment of a voluntary scheme within the clothing trade in which participants could declare that their products are humanely produced. In this way travel and trade would be less affected and participating companies may derive a benefit from seeking humanely sourced materials.

Thank you for bringing your concerns to my attention.

Yours sincerely

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Bob Debus', written in a cursive style.

Bob Debus